RECOGNITION CATEGORIES

Candidates for degrees, certificates of achievement and career certificates

Graduates from fall, winter, spring and summer quarters are listed in the program.

★ Academic honors

Honors graduates whose cumulative GPA equals or exceeds 3.5 of a total 4.0 possible grade points are wearing gold honor medallions with blue ribbons.

§ Phi Theta Kappa

Members of Phi Theta Kappa, a national two-year college honorary organization, are wearing gold honor stoles. To be eligible for membership in Phi Theta Kappa, students must have attained a 3.5 overall GPA and successfully completed at least 12 hours toward an associate degree, or at least six hours toward a one-year certificate at MCC. Phi Theta Kappa is an organization that develops leadership, fosters academic excellence and encourages service to the community.

$ Scholarship recipients

Scholarship recipients are wearing blue and white cords. MCC students receive more than $5 million in annually awarded scholarships by the MCC Scholarships Office. These scholarships are generously provided by MCC, MCC Foundation donors or outside organizations to help students with the cost of their education. Students who earn scholarships meet eligibility requirements set forth through the establishment of the scholarship. More than 130 unique scholarships are available for students.

Avenue Scholars

Participants in Avenue Scholars are wearing purple cords. The Avenue Scholars Foundation has a mission to ensure careers for committed students of hope and need through education/training and supportive relationships. Scholars work collaboratively with Avenue Scholars Foundation and MCC from high school to postsecondary education and into high-demand, financially sustaining careers in the community.

F-1 international students

F-1 international students may choose to wear a sash representing their home country. The sash displays either the country's colors or the country's flag. Many F-1 international students studied English before advancing to and successfully completing a certificate of achievement or an associate degree.

Kappa Beta Delta

Members of Kappa Beta Delta, an international honor society for students of business, management and administration, are wearing indigo (blue) stoles with gold lettering. To be eligible for membership in Kappa Beta Delta, students must have attained a 3.0 overall GPA and successfully completed at least 12 quarter hours of credit at MCC. Kappa Beta Delta membership is the highest international recognition a business student can receive at a two-year institution accredited by the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and the Accreditation Council of Business Schools and Programs.

Military service members and veterans

Military and veteran graduates are wearing braided red, white and blue cords in honor of their service to our country. These students represent each of the six military service branches and include members of active duty, guard and reserve components and veterans.

SkillsUSA

Students who compete at state and national leadership conferences are wearing red and white cords. SkillsUSA recognizes these career and technical students who excel in their occupational areas, as well as in leadership development activities that are an integral part of the program.

Transfer students

Kelly green cords signify students graduating with a degree that transfers to a four-year institution of higher learning.

TRIO/Student Support Services

Participants in the TRIO/Student Support Services program are wearing red cords. These students have enhanced their college experience by actively participating in academic and personal enrichment opportunities, college success planning and cultural events while completing their degrees.

Walter Scott, Jr. Career Pathway Scholars

The Walter Scott, Jr. Career Pathway Scholars are wearing a white sash with blue lettering. In partnership with MCC, the Walter Scott, Jr. Career Pathway Scholarship Program supports the education and development of students pursuing high-wage, high-demand, high-skill careers. The Suzanne & Walter Scott Foundation aims to be a catalyst for positive change through best-in-class scholarship programs that grow, cultivate and retain talent.

COMMENCEMENT TRADITIONS

Ceremonial mace

In the Middle Ages, the mace was a club used in battle and carried by a bodyguard to defend a person of authority. Its transformation into a symbol of intellectual authority is both a tribute to and a reminder of the civilizing force of a college's teaching, research and community service. Over the years, it began to lose its warlike image and became a symbol of peaceful leadership.

At an academic institution, the mace adds meaning and dignity to the commencement ritual. It reminds participants and spectators that education is one of the most cherished attributes of a free and democratic society. When the ceremonial mace is present, the authority of the college is present, and the use of the mace is reserved for occasions of outstanding importance.

Bearing the mace is a position of honor. At Metropolitan Community College, the honor is conferred to a faculty member at each commencement in recognition of teaching excellence by all faculty at the College.

Academic attire

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the early days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates and Bachelors" of the University of Coimbra wear gowns. In England in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade "excess in apparel" and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. The hoods worn primarily by those holding a doctorate were once functional; their purpose was to protect the wearer from the weather and for warmth in poorly heated buildings and classrooms.

While European institutions continue to show great diversity in their specifications of academic dress, American colleges and universities generally have adopted the Intercollegiate Code for Academic Costumes. This code specifies design characteristics of gowns, hoods, caps and tassels, including pattern, material, color, trimmings, etc.

For all academic purposes, including trimmings of doctorate gowns, edging of hoods and tassels of caps, the colors associated with the different academic disciplines are as follows:
