

50103 Career Services

Assistance is provided to students in all phases of their career path, from the identification of a career direction through a variety of inventories to such skills development as resume preparation, job search strategies and interviewing.

(Revised 4/28/15)